What's New In This Edition

PATH is currently engaged in significant weekend work for all weekends in 2014.

There are two big service changes our passengers may experience:

-No service to and from both World Trade Center and Exchange Place stations all weekend long

-Schedule variations on some segments of service to allow for targeted signal construction work

This edition of the Timetable, Map & Guide includes weekend schedule information, but it is intended as a baseline only. Schedules are subject to change on a weekly basis, and include both decreases and increases of service.

We advise passengers to allow additional travel time to their destinations, and to check our PATH weekly traffic advisories online at www.panynj.gov/alerts-advisories/advisories.html. These advisories are updated every Friday afternoon and have the most up-to-date information.

You can also call 800-234-PATH (7284) for updates, or pick up a passenger assistance phone to be connected to our control center. Finally, we encourage passengers to subscribe to PATHAlerts at www.pathalerts.com and follow us on Twitter at @PATHTrain to stay informed about schedule changes.

Please visit www.panynj.gov/path to learn more about work underway, and share your feedback at PATHCommunity@panynj.gov.

We appreciate your patience as we work to build a better PATH.
